O God, our help in ages past,
Our hope for years to come,
Our shelter from the stormy blast
And our eternal home.

A thousand ages in Thy sight
Are like an evening gone;
Short as the watch that ends in the night
Before the rising sun.

Before the hills in order stood,
Or earth received her frame,
From everlasting Thou art God,
To endless years the same.

O God, our help in ages past,
Our hope for years to come,
Be Thou our guard while life shall last
And our eternal home. Amen.

—Isaac Watts, 1674-1748.

(The people standing until the academic procession has left the Chapel and the Benediction has been pronounced)
